

News of Women's Clubs--Social Affairs of Note

Clubwomen Complete Program For Welcoming of New Year

Dinners, Dances, Card and Theater Parties Are Among Greetings Which Will Be Extended to 1923

Many of the women's clubs will hold special New Year's Day receptions to-morrow or will have extra meetings for the first week of the new year. Several of them will give dinners and dances and others will have card and theater parties and all have interesting programs arranged. The New York Mozart Society will have a supper dance on Tuesday night, the Criterion has a Boy Scout Day on Friday, the Rubinstein has a meeting and the women's political clubs will have special gatherings.

Mrs. Corinne Roosevelt Robinson will be the guest of honor at the meeting of the Jacobus Roosevelt Chapter of the D. A. R. to be held at the Waldorf-Astoria Thursday morning, at 11:30 o'clock. Mrs. William Cummings Story will be chairman of the day. Luncheon will be served following the meeting.

The first of the Monday lectures to be given by the women's department of the National Civic Federation will take place Monday, January 8, at the Commodore Hotel. Mrs. Francis McNeil Bacon, chairman of the New York and New Jersey section of the federation, will preside. The speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Emma Eames, who will lecture on "Women in Arts and Letters."

Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge, Mrs. Leland Eggleston Coffe, Mrs. Marshall J. Dodge and Mrs. Kate Douglas Wiggin are the committee in charge.

The Woman's State Republican Association, Miss Mary Wood, of New Lebanon Center, president, has changed its place of meeting from the Hotel Pennsylvania to the Hotel Astor. The club will give an afternoon card party at the Astor on January 12, 1923, under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. G. Hughes, of Heathcote Inn, Scarsdale.

The Euterpe Club, Mrs. T. W. G. Cook, president, will hold its second regular luncheon at the Waldorf-Astoria next Thursday. A musical program will be rendered, following the luncheon. The guests of honor will include Mrs. Belle de Rivera, founder of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. William Cummings Story, of the D. A. R.; Mrs. J. Christopher Marks, founder and president of the Theatre Assembly; and Mrs. Marie Cross Newhouse, founder and president of the Societe des Beaux Arts; Mrs. William Hamilton Baker, president of the Woman's Club of Staten Island; and Miss Louise Marie Contencin, a card party will be held at the Astor on January 25 for the benefit of the Veterans' Mountain Camp.

The Caritas Sewing Circle, Mrs. H. Hine, president, will hold its third card party of the season on January 12 at the Elks Club House, at 111 East Fifty-eighth Street.

Justice Charles J. Dodd will speak on "Functions of the District Attorney" at the Tuesday morning Forum, to be held by the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs January 9 at the Hotel Astor. Mrs. Richard M. Chapman, president, will preside.

Exiles from their respective home states will congregate in the grand ball room of the Hotel Pennsylvania Thursday, January 11, when the Annual State Luncheon will be held under auspices of the Congress of State Societies.

Men or women interested in the welfare of their country will find a welcome on this occasion. Communications should be addressed to the secretary, Mrs. Charles D. Hirst, 137 West Seventy-fifth Street.

A large committee of arrangements is at work to complete the details of decoration and program. Mrs. P. J. White, of 270 Park Avenue, is chairman of the program.

The officers of the congress are: Mrs. Thomas Vivian, president; Mrs. William L. Sands, Mrs. Edwin L. Smart, Miss Mary Garrett Hay, Mrs. Charles S. Gallagher, Mrs. David B. Luckey, Mrs. Arthur J. White, Mrs. Victor Fredrickson, Mrs. John H. Bush, Mrs. Wright Johnson, Mrs. Hal T. Beane, Dr. Frances W. Monell, Mrs. Rudolph Binder, Mrs. Walter S. Conly, Mrs. Edward B. Williams, Mrs. O. K. von Bonowitz, Mrs. Frank M. Tenen, Mrs. Victor Fredrickson, Mrs. N. B. Van Sinderland, Mrs. William Pitt Trimble, vice-presidents; Mrs. John B. Sheppard, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles D. Hirst, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frederick C. Gay, treasurer, and Mrs. William C. Cault, historian.

Members of the Post Parliament Club held rehearsal Friday for the Meet Parliament, which is scheduled for Friday, January 12, at the Hotel McAlpin. The subject will be "Meeting of the Cabinet."

Dr. William Starr Myers will give his fifth talk under auspices of State of New York Society, United States Daughters of 1812, on January 16, at the Waldorf-Astoria. Mrs. William Gerry Slade heads the committee in charge of the talks. Other members include Mrs. George B. Wallis, Mrs. Homer Lee, Mrs. John E. Vake, Mrs. Harry Hadler, Mr. Clarence W. Learned, Mr. Alfred E. Maury, Mr. Henry Ernest Niese, Mr. Frederick Sousa, Mr. W. P. Slovich, Mr. Thomas J. Vian, Mr. Harvey Tyson, Mr. Hugo Winter, Mr. Minthorne Woolley, Caroline Zander and the Misses Martha Treat Douglas, Helen Hicks, Bonnie Ottwell, Amelia Schachtel and Carrie B. Woodford. Mrs. Florence Foster Jenkins will have charge of the musical program.

Charter Chapter, Mrs. Daniel Felton Duffie, regent, gave a card party at the Waldorf-Astoria last Wednesday, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lucien Burges, assisted by Dr. Frances W. Monell and Mrs. Frederic Jones.

Athens, Mrs. Katherine A. Martin, president, will hold its regular luncheon on January 4 at the Waldorf-Astoria. The annual dinner and dance will be held at the Waldorf-Astoria on January 12. The chairman will be Mrs. Neptune B. Smyth, and the hostesses include Mrs. M. E. Hamilton, B. Stow, H. L. Baus, F. E. Brewster, J. N. Dero, A. W. Williams, B. T. Wenzman, H. C. Eas, E. P. Reilly, P. Worthington, H. W. Pierce, L. Stern, E. Epstein, N. L. Peterson, E. A. Conran, C. H. Eagle, J. G. Gulick, C. H. Braxmar, H. K. Miller, C. H. Haviland, J. B. Stephens, M. A. Brand, C. F. Diehl, A. Well, G. W. Beckel, J. C. Toole, C. Ledard, G. Lemble, J. Schaefer, W. A. Camp and J. Gervin.

Le Locum. Societe des Femmes de

Mrs. Cary Frederick Simmons

She will give a luncheon on Wednesday at the Hotel Astor for Mrs. Noble McConnell. She is one of the governors of the New York Mozart Society.

France a New Year, held a meeting at the residence of the president, Mme. Carlo Polifeme, last Thursday. Mme. Charles Augustine Robinson were heard in recitations, Mme. Jacqueline de Moor gave piano selections, Miss Elizabeth Newman was seen in classic dances and Miss McDermott and Miss Augusta Boschini played "Le Lizard," a comedy. The Lyceum on January 6 will celebrate two important events--the 52nd anniversary of the birth of Jeanne d'Arc and the first anniversary of the unveiling of the monument to the saint at Washington. Mme. Le Fee Faraday will give musical selections, assisted by Miss Jacqueline de Moor. The Rev. William Norman Guthrie, of St. Mark's-on-the-Bowery, will talk on "Moral and Mystical France." Father Alcibiade, of Notre Dame, will make a short speech. Mrs. Belle de Rivera and Mrs. Harriet Holt Day, both honorary members of the Lyceum, also will address the club.

Among the guests of honor will be Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, Mrs. Richard M. Chapman, president of City Federation of Women's Clubs; Mr. Robert Underwood Johnson, Mrs. Walter Seaman Comly, Mrs. George Maynard Minor, Mrs. William Cummings Story, Mrs. Mary Garrett Hay, Baroness Katherine von Klenner, Mrs. Cora Wells Trow, Mrs. Lillian B. Sire, Dr. Henry Fowler, Mrs. Anna Vaughan Hyatt, Mr. C. W. Stevens, Mrs. A. M. Palmer, Mrs. Edith Totten Fanning, Miss Amy Wren, Mrs. Albert Canfield Bago, Mrs. Stanley Lyman Otis, Mrs. Livingston Roe Schuyler, Mrs. Homer Lee, Mrs. Eugene Grant, Miss Helen Varick Boswell and others.

The American Society of Reconstruction will hold a meeting on Monday afternoon, January 8, at the Hotel Plaza. Mrs. Robert Wylie Lyle, founder and president, will preside. After the usual routine business is disposed of new members will be initiated. Several prominent speakers will talk on reconstruction. The society recently contributed $100 to the Veterans' Mountain Camp.

The first in a series of bridge parties was recently held at the Hotel Plaza, with Mrs. James C. Ledbetter, chairman. The hostesses were Mrs. Henry Clarke Coe, Mrs. Harry Lee Ziegler, Mrs. M. M. Donnarumma, Mrs. Charles D. Dressel, Mrs. R. W. Lyle, Mrs. Charles N. Brown and Mrs. Myron T. Seauder. In addition to these named, the following women played at the various tables: Mrs. Royal S. Copeland, Mrs. Sherman Woodward, Miss Louise A. Dobson, Mrs. Arthur V. Dearden, Miss Louise Marie Contencin, Mrs. J. Heath, Mrs. A. Mae White, Mrs. William H. Seldon, Mrs. Sydney L. Sutherland, Mrs. John William Quay, Mrs. Solon Palmer, the Misses Lester, Mrs. H. B. Kondrick, Mrs. Walter Lyle Jordan, Mrs. S. E. Glenn, Mrs. F. H. Carlie, Mrs. M. G. Colyer and Mrs. W. P. Barker.

The officers of the society for the new year are: Mrs. Robert Wylie Lyle, president; Mrs. Minnie Taylor Pearson, Mrs. Myron T. Seauder, Mrs. E. N. Brown and Mrs. Lee Caruthers, vice-presidents; Mrs. M. M. Donnarumma, treasurer, and Mrs. Henry Clarke Coe, parliamentarian.

The Theater Assembly, Mrs. J. Christopher Marks, president and founder, will have a private tour to Atlantic City for the week end Friday, February 16, for the members and their friends. The young people's auxiliary of the Theater Assembly has charge of details of the trip. The committee in charge of reservations is Mrs. Edward Nunn and Mrs. H. L. Roy Haven. The Theater Assembly train will leave the Pennsylvania Station at 2 p. m., February 16.

On Saturday evening the Assembly will give a private ball at the cotillion in the Egyptian room of the Breakers Hotel. The Mayor of Atlantic City and his wife will be guests at the ball. The special train will return on Sunday evening at 11 o'clock.

The Junior Art Society, Mrs. J. Christopher Marks, founder, Frances

The Legislative League, Inc., Mrs.

Miss Marie L. McBride

She was a member of the committee of arrangements for the Marquette Club supper dance given last night at the Hotel Plaza. She is a daughter of Mr. D. H. McBride.

Society in the Oranges

Engagement of Miss Janet L. Cameron to Mr. Anderson Announced; Columbian Club Members to Dance

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Janet L. Cameron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Cameron, of 240 Harrison Street, East Orange, to Mr. Raymond W. Anderson, of St. Paul.

Miss Cameron is a graduate of the Bird School of Orange and of Pine Manor. She also studied in Paris. Mr. Anderson is an Oxford graduate and served in the French Army during the World War from 1914 until the entry of the United States into the conflict. He then joined the United States forces as an officer in the First Division Artillery. After the armistice he acted as an interpreter at the peace conference.

No wedding date has been set.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Orth, of Wood-Road, Maplewood, will entertain at a dance at their home in honor of their daughter, Miss Grace Orth.

Invitations have been issued by the Columbian Club of East Orange for a New Year's night dance. Mr. J. G. Quinlan, of Glen Ridge and Mr. Joseph Froggatt, of East Orange, are in charge of the arrangements.

Members of the Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity who are residents of the Oranges will be guests of honor at a reception to be given Monday evening, January 8, by Mrs. Everett de Golyer, of Watchung Avenue, Montclair.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hay, of 749 Valley Street, Orange, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Hay, to Mr. Clifford R. O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. O'Neill, of 605 Scotland Road, that city. Both Miss Hay and Mr. O'Neill are graduates of the Orange High School.

The address of the afternoon, "Italy--Today," will be given by Mr. Edward Corsi, author and educational director of Harlem House, Inc.

Among the new members to be welcomed are Mrs. Warren F. Thummel, Mrs. Beatrice Goldie Corbett, Mrs. Juliette Southard, Mrs. Gladys Goldberg and Mrs. Leon Lord.

The next afternoon musicale of the Rubinstein Club, Mrs. William Rogers Chapman, president, will be given on Saturday afternoon, January 27, at 2 o'clock in the Astor Gallery of the Waldorf-Astoria. The soloist will be Miss Grace Hoffman, coloratura soprano. Miss Hoffman's numbers will be given in costume. She will be assisted by Riccardo de Sylva, violinist, and Robert S. Flieger, pianist. The program promises to be delightful.

Dancing will be enjoyed after the recital until 6 o'clock.

The first Rubinstein Assembly dance to be given under the auspices of the ushers and with the chaperonage of the board of directors of the club is the Christmas musicale, which will be held Tuesday evening in the roof parlors of the Waldorf. A jolly time is promised for those who attend.

An afternoon card party for the benefit of the philanthropic fund of the club is to be given at the home of Mrs. H. G. Green, 378 West End Avenue, January 26. Mrs. George F. Colter and Miss Elsie Rogers are chairmen of the committee in charge. A prize will be accorded to every table. Tickets are to be had by applying to Mrs. George F. Colter, 419 West 119th Street.

The Theater Club, Inc., Mrs. George Maynard Clyde, president, held its Christmas dance in the ballroom of Hotel Astor last Tuesday afternoon. The program opened with an organ recital. Christmas music which was followed by the showing of the motion picture "A Bill of Divorcement." Dancing lasted from 4 until 7 p. m. Mrs. Laura F. Bardwell and Mrs. L. S. Weber were chairmen for the afternoon.

The Theater Club's next study day will be Tuesday, January 9, when Miss Lillie Selig will be chairman. The subject for discussion will be "The World We Live In."

Portia Club held its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the Hotel Astor. The president, Mrs. Edward Allen Albright, presided and introduced the guests of honor--Miss Mildred Holm, Mrs. William Cummings Story, the American Revolution; Mrs. Richard Chapman, president of the New York City Federation; Mrs. Henry Marsh, secretary of Civic Reform; Miss Florence Kelly, of the Consumers' League; and Miss Isabella L. Pettus, L.L.M. Mrs. Royal S. Copeland spoke in place of Dr. Copeland.

The Verdi Club, Mrs. Florence Foster Jenkins, president, has just concluded a brilliant week of Christmas parties, teas and dances.

The first affair was a tea given on Monday afternoon by the president at the MacDowell Club for the Benvenuto Committee. Mrs. Louis C. Naiswald, chairman. On Wednesday Mrs. John F. Sipe gave a Christmas party for the wives and means committee. Mr. Arthur H. Bridge, chairman, at the Hotel Astor. On Friday Miss Georgia Portillo gave a dance for the Verdi Club juniors, Miss Rita Marz, chairman, at her home, 325 West End Avenue.

The club will give a Blue Bird dance at the MacDowell gallery on January 25 under the chairmanship of Mrs. Gardner Hiron. The proceeds of the dance are given to the flower fund of the club, which sends remembrances to those members who are ill.

Sorosis, Mrs. John Lewis Childs, president, will celebrate New Year's Day at the Waldorf as usual, with festive holiday spirit. The New Year breakfast is the annual gentlemen's day, with special guests, special tables for young people and children, special features for each man and an entertaining program followed by dancing.

The guests of honor will be Mrs. and Mrs. Edwin Markham, Mr. Morris East, Mr. Channing Pollock, Mr. Sergei Berenson, Mr. Charles Rand Kennedy, Edith Wynne Matthison, Mr. and Mrs. Huntington Woodman, Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Spaeth, Mrs. Harriet Ware Krumbach, Mr. Glazi and Mme. Glazi, Dr. Esther Lovejoy, Major Guy Thomas Viskitski, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Guiterman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Hill, Mr. E. P. Maynard, Mr. T. Gilbert Pearson.

Miss Jean Guy, of Park Avenue, and Miss Ruth Blanchard, of Vernon Place, East Orange, were associate hostesses yesterday afternoon at a whist party given at the home of Miss Guy.

Miss Nancy Poulson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Poulson, of Springfield Avenue, East Orange, is at West End as the guest of Miss Ruth Sternbach at Villa Starbrook.

Of exceptional interest to society in the Oranges is the announcement of the engagement of Mr. Thomas Caldecott Chubb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hendon Chubb, of Llewellyn Park, West Orange, to Miss Elizabeth Owen, daughter of Mr. Walter T. Owen, of Bronxville, N. Y.

Miss Owen attended Miss Fox's school, Very, Switzerland. Mr. Chubb is a graduate of St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. He is now at the University, class of '22. No date has been set for the wedding.

Plans are being made by Mrs. Chubb for various affairs in honor of her son's fiancée.

Mrs. Joseph C. Graves, of Fairview

Miss Marguerite E. Droosten Annual Yuletide Dance Held by Marquette Club

Supper Served at Midnight at Brilliant Affair Given by the Organization at the Hotel Plaza

The annual Yuletide supper dance of the Marquette Club was held at the Plaza Sunday evening. The supper was served at midnight.

Mr. John Thomas Egan, chairman, assisted by Miss Ruth Leydenbach, vice-chairman. The committee of 100 included: Mrs. Frank H. Egan, Mr. T. Hilary Bostillon, Mr. T. J. Canavan, Mr. John M. Connolly, Paul A. Cullinan, Mr. J. Edward Gier, Mr. E. Fonseca Jr., Mr. Edward Gier, Mr. Paul F. Gier, Mr. J. Joseph J. McCard, Mr. William F. Moanus, Mr. J. Louis Meyer, Dr. James Moran, Mr. Ambrose O'Connell, Dr. John Jerome Reilly, Dr. George R. Stuart, Mr. Henry A. Thellous, Miss Peggy Brennan, Miss Clara Goss, Miss Gertrude M. Farrell, Miss Dorothy Fickinger, Miss Kathryn Fickinger, Mrs. Herman L. Heide, Miss Ann Howley, Miss Katherine Howley, Mrs. Kathleen Kelly, Miss Louise Lander, Miss Marie L. McBride, Mrs. William J. McManus, Mrs. James Magee, Mrs. Marie C. Maloney, Miss Marie L. Maloney, Miss Charlotte A. Manning, Mrs. James Moran, Miss Mary E. Mulry, Mrs. Ambrose O'Connell, Miss Marlen Schanz, Mrs. George T. Stuart, Miss Kathleen Toley and Miss Helen Van Eli.

500 Get Yuletide Cheer At East Side Clinic

Mothers and Children Given Presents and Enjoy Merry Time at Tree

The East Side Clinic for Women and Children, of which Mrs. Noble McConnell is president, entertained about 500 children and their mothers at a Christmas dinner and tree at the Hotel Astor last Thursday. The children were taken to and from the Astor in busses provided by the Committee on Grover Whalen and were received by their arrival at the hotel by Mr. and Mrs. William Maynard Harlan. Mrs. Philip C. Boerum was chairman of the committee in charge and was assisted by Mrs. Samuel Gardner Edmunds, Mrs. Harlan, Mrs. Owen J. Williams, Mrs. Emma F. Seaman, Mrs. Joseph P. Martin and Mrs. Maria Rieff.

After the dinner two Santa Claus distributed the gifts from a large Christmas tree, which included by toys, woolen wearing apparel, books, handkerchiefs, caps, large dolls, seasonal food, fruit, etc.

Orlando contributed the music and other forms of entertainment, including a donkey show. The two bands were Mr. Joseph E. Martin and Mr. Harold Lanchester.

Mrs. Cary F. Simmons will give a luncheon at the Hotel Astor on January 3 for Mrs. Noble McConnell. The guests will include the officers and members of the New York Mozart Society. Afterward they will attend the theater.

The third morning musicale of the Mozart Society will be held on Friday at the Hotel Astor. The artists will be Susan Ida Clough, soprano; Frederic Baer, baritone; Willis Stahl violin; and Emanuel Baer, accompanist. Luncheon will follow and afterward "Kick In," a Paramount picture, will be shown. There will be dancing.

New York City Chapter D. A. R. To Hold Reception January 6

The annual reception of the New York City Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Mrs. Alfred W. Cochran, regent, will be held at Hotel Plaza on January 6, the wedding anniversary of George and Martha Washington. The chairman, Mr. Herman W. Booth, has arranged an interesting program. Mr. Hugh Gordon Miller will make the patriotic address, and a celebrated quartet of trumpeters will furnish the music. Mrs. George White Nash, state regent, and Mrs. Frederick Menges, state historian, will be among the invited guests.

Italian Ambassador Will Attend Fascist Ball Here

The Fascist ball will be held Tuesday, January 9, in the grand ballroom of the Plaza. A concert will start at 9 o'clock with the appearance of Mme. Frances Alda and Mr. Giovanni Martini. A chorus, by courtesy of the Metropolitan Opera House, will sing "Giovinezza," the Fascist hymn.

The Fascist movement will be summarized by Lieutenant A. Carminati, World War veteran and one of the first Fascists. Supper will be served at 11 o'clock. H. E. Prince G. Castani, Italian Ambassador to the United States, will be among those present.

Spirit of Iowa Beams On Fete in This City

Annual Christmas Dinner and Entertainment Held by New Yorkers

The annual Christmas dinner and dance of the Iowa New Yorkers was held Friday evening at the Hotel Belleclaire. Mrs. George Botsford, chairman of the committee in charge, was assisted by Mrs. Charles H. Beach in planning the entertainment.

Several other entertainments are being planned by the Iowa New Yorkers to take place at the Belleclaire later in the winter.

Among those who had reservations for Friday evening were Mrs. John C. Adams, Mrs. John Alden, Mrs. Charles Arkland, Armstrong, Mrs. Henry H. Babbitt, Mrs. Wayland O. Bagley, Mrs. Daniel B. Baker, Mrs. John W. Barnhart, Mrs. Charles Hoover Beach, Mrs. Webster Bishop, Mrs. George Botsford, Mrs. Edwina George Bowman, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Mary Carey, Mrs. William Parker Chase, Mrs. James Watson Coughan, Mrs. Thomas Clinton Cunningham, Mrs. Walter A. Deems, Mrs. Edward T. Devine, Miss Anna Dodge, Mrs. Irene W. Dreishner, Mrs. Clarence Earle Ford, Mrs. John Barbour Gardner, Mrs. Laurence T. Gaylord, Mrs. Willis Hawley, Mrs. Paul Jones, Mrs. Daniel G. Langlands, Miss Kate Liddle, Mrs. Gerry Phillips, Mrs. Roscoe J. Raney and Mrs. Clarence N. Titterton.

New Yorkers Who Will Pass New Year's at Traymore

Among the New York arrivals at Hotel Traymore, Atlantic City, who plan to remain over New Year's are Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Olmstead, Miss Elizabeth Schneider, Miss Mary F. Cahill, Miss Margaret Casey, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Keegan, Mr. P. J. Keegan, Mr. Michael Blake, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ebling, the Misses Louise and Katherine Ebling and Master L. B. Ebling, Mrs. W. P. Adams, Mrs. H. K. Taylor, Mr. Lewis Herzog, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest T. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Murphy and many others.

The time and place of Happy Living--Winter days at the Traymore where luxury, perfect service, and delightful climate make life truly worth while.

The finest resort hotel on either continent. American or European plan. Fireproof. Always open. Details on request. Golf privileges.

Take this Bracing Holiday!

Spend a few days in the Canadian snows. Toboggan, skate, and ski under the blaring northern sun. You'll come back with a "snow tan," and a new inner and outer man. . . . The winter carnival is now on. Dufferin Terrace is a roaring toboggan slide. Its hills are scored with ski tracks. Its band park is a skating rink. Dogsleds run the ramps. Sleighs jingle thru the 17th century streets. . . . Join the company of merry-makers. Chateau Frontenac is headquarters. Famous as a hostelry; notable as an edifice; celebrated as a resort. Let the Canadian Pacific Office plan your trip now. 44th and Madison, New York. Or, write Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, Canada.

CHATEAU FRONTENAC

A CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTEL AT OLD QUEBEC